Part X, Line 2:

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code (IRC). The Organization has been classified as a publicly supported organization, which is not a private foundation under 509(a) of the Code. Income from certain activities not directly related to the Organization's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. Accordingly, there is no liability for income taxes reflected in these financial statements.

The Organization follows FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. This pronouncement seeks to reduce the diversity in practice associated with certain aspects of measurement and recognition in accounting for income taxes. It prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position that an entity takes or expects to take in a tax return. An entity may only recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold. The Organization assesses its income tax positions based on management's evaluation of the facts, circumstances, and information available at the reporting date. The Organization uses the prescribed more likely than not threshold when making its assessment. There are currently no open federal or state tax years under audit.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11b:

During the preparation of the 990, the finance sub-committee of the board of directors discussed components of the document at their regular meetings. Particular attention was paid to ascertaining that governance policies were in place and followed. The financial year which is being reported in the 990 was also discussed in detail. Board members also received a draft of the 990 for questions and comments. A copy of the final 990 was distributed to the board members prior to submission to the IRS.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Each year during the September meeting of the board of directors, each member is given the conflict of interest and asked to review it. They then sign a declaration that they agree to abide by its contents and declare any conflicts they have. If a conflict were to arise during the course of the year, the conflict of interest policy governs the procedures to be followed by the directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 15:

For the compensation of officers and key employees, an outside legal firm was hired to make a comparative study for compensation levels for similar positions and organizations. The report is given to the board of directors which discusses and documents the discussion and then sets compensation levels for all key employees.
