Part X, Line 2:

The Organization is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. However, income from certain activities not directly related to 211's tax-exempt purpose is subject to taxation as unrelated business income. In addition, 211 qualifies for the charitable contribution deduction under Section 170(b)(1)(A) and has been classified as an organization other than a private foundation under Section 509(a)(2). Based upon an analysis of its net unrelated business income for the current year and the net operating loss carryovers available from earlier years, The Organization does not believe there is any income tax owed for the period and there is no tax liability recognized in these financial statements.

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

The Organization has adopted FASB ASC 740-10, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes. This pronouncement seeks to reduce the diversity in practice associated with certain aspects of measurement and recognition in accounting for income taxes. It prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attribute for financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position that an entity takes or expects to take in a tax return. An entity may only recognize or continue to recognize tax positions that meet a "more likely than not" threshold. The Organization assesses its income tax positions based on management's evaluation of the facts, circumstances and information available at the reporting date. The Organization uses the prescribed "more likely than not" threshold when making its assessment. At adoption, the Organization did not record any cumulative effect adjustment, and the Organization did not accrue any interest expense or penalties related to tax positions. There are currently no open Federal or State tax years under audit.

Form 990, Part I, Line 1, Description of Organization Mission:

211 provides empathetic guidance and support to individuals and families in distress or in need of information about health and human services programs. This free and confidential telephone based assistance is available 24 hours a day, 365 days a year to anyone who dials 2-1-1. The agency also provides daily telephone reassurance calls to homebound elders; to elders in distress; to families with special needs children from birth to age 22; and to families of children 0-8 who are at-risk for behavioral or developmental disabilities. We have spearheaded successful partnership campaigns with Leadership Palm Beach County to promote texting services to youth, worked with Tri-Rail to help combat suicide by train, and being the central access point for the treatment of opioid addiction for individuals without insurance. 211 leadership and staff are dedicated to being here for our local residents in times of crisis and need, and, unfortunately, we are needed now more than ever.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a, Program Service Accomplishments:

Additionally, 125,949 referrals, requiring assessment of needs along with supportive guidance, were made for 139,414 expressed community needs from those who we serve. This program has been in operation since 1971 and is nationally accredited by the Alliance for information and Referral Systems (AIRS) and the American Association of Suicidology (AAS) to provide information and referral services along with crisis intervention and suicide prevention services. Further, all services are free, confidential and services are available via phone, chat, text and email in addition to the online database on our website. 211 has been here throughout the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic to provide emotional support, information, and resources to those in our community who are struggling with the lingering impacts of this public health crisis. Our community depends on being able to turn to the 211 HelpLine, 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, especially during times of disaster, and our Resource Center Specialists are skilled at providing crisis de-escalation techniques and community resources that help stabilize and resolve the crisis situations members of our community are facing, very often saving lives.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b, Program Service Accomplishments:

This program has been in operation since 1985, providing skilled advocacy and care coordination services by way of our experienced ECO Advocates who will visit the elder should an in-home assessment be needed (when it is safe to do so) and provide them with short-term assistance in resolving their unique and often complex issues by connecting them with appropriate services to meet their basic needs. This program has been especially valuable to Palm Beach County seniors during the COVID-19 pandemic, when more seniors than ever before were at-risk of battling with a crisis situation due to the increased threat that the virus presented for this population. In our previous fiscal year from July 2021- June 30, 2022, a total of 724 Palm Beach County elders were served by ECO.

This program also save lives every year by providing emergency intervention in the event that the Sunshine client does not answer their scheduled phone call after multiple attempts. In our previous fiscal year from July 2021- June 2022, 725 isolated, lonely elders or disabled individuals received daily telephone reassurance calls through the contribution of our 12 volunteers, equating to approximately 1,374 hours of volunteer service.
