PALM BEACH, FL – Members of the Town of Palm Beach United Way’s Red Feather Society gathered for a cocktail party Wednesday, February 15, at Findlay Galleries to celebrate a successful start to the United Way’s annual fundraising campaign. More than 120 supporters attended the event, which was sponsored by Findlay Galleries and hosted by James Borynack and Adolfo Zaralegui.

Membership in the Red Feather Society is granted to donors who give between $1,000 and $9,999 annually to the campaign. Lisa Wilkinson is chairwoman of this year’s Society.

To date, the Red Feather campaign has raised $847,918 on a goal of $900,000. The Red Feather campaign is part of the United Way’s overall campaign, which has so far raised more than $6.2 million.

“We are so grateful to our Red Feather donors for their commitment to investing in the work of our United Way,” Wilkinson said. “Without their leadership gifts the United Way would not be able to support its nonprofit partners or the needs of our community.”

Funds raised through the Red Feather Campaign are currently helping the Town of Palm Beach United Way fund 77 health and human service programs at 41 nonprofit agencies throughout Palm Beach County that serve more than 350,000 children and adults each year.

The Red Feather Society was founded in 1987 and since then has raised more than $17 million to improve lives and build stronger communities in Palm Beach County.

“Red Feather Society members share a spirit of caring, a passion for giving generously, and a desire to make a real difference in the lives of others,” said Board Chairman Bill Tiefel. “We thank everyone who has contributed to this year’s campaign and look forward to finishing the year strong.”
