PALM BEACH, Fla. – Members of the Town of Palm Beach United Way’s Business and Professional Committee met today to kick off the 2018-2019 fundraising campaign.

Chairman Stephen Hall, Jr. announced this year’s campaign goal of $325,000. The 28-member committee secures corporate gifts and employee donations from hundreds of businesses and professionals in Palm Beach, South Palm Beach and Manalapan. Those contributions help support 82 health and human service programs at the Town of Palm Beach’s 45 non-profit partner agencies in Palm Beach County.

“Businesses exist to make money so it’s challenging for companies to gift funds away, but it is also extremely rewarding to know that a gift to the United Way goes a long way toward helping people in our community with real needs,” Hall said.

Last year, the Business and Professional Campaign raised $304,115. About 1,400 employees on average donated $112 for a total contribution of $156,691. Approximately 91 companies gave an average gift of $1,620 for a campaign total of $147,424. The Business and Professional Campaign represents about 6 percent of the Town of Palm Beach United Way’s total Annual Campaign.

“We all have a responsibility to give back to the community where we live and work,” said Town of Palm Beach United Way Board Chairman Jay Boodheshwar. “A few dollars from a pay check can provide a hot meal for a homeless person, tutoring for a struggling teen, diapers for a single mom, music therapy for Alzheimer’s patients or phone coverage to a suicidal caller.”
