Palm Beach, Fla. — The Town of Palm Beach United Way hosted a meet-and-greet cocktail mixer for members of its Business and Professional Committee on Tuesday, October 4 at The Colony Palm Beach. The reception, underwritten by The Colony, marked the start of the United Way's 2022-2023 Business and Professional fundraising campaign.

The Business and Professional Campaign is part of the Town of Palm Beach United Way's General Campaign. The 28-member committee is responsible for securing corporate gifts and employee donations from businesses and professionals in Palm Beach, South Palm Beach and Manalapan. Those contributions help support 77 health and human service programs at 41 nonprofit agencies throughout Palm Beach County.

Jay Clifford, Vice President at First Horizon, and Stacie Hallinan, Director of Catering Sales at The Colony Palm Beach, are co-chairmen of this year's committee. The campaign goal is set at $395,000.

"We are looking forward to a successful year for the Town of Palm Beach United Way's Business and Professional Campaign," Clifford said. "The contributions and partnerships we receive from the island business community allow the United Way to serve thousands of residents in need throughout Palm Beach County."

Employees can give to the Business and Professional campaign through a one-time gift or through payroll deduction programs. Business can donate one-time corporate gifts and sponsorships.

"Whether it is a few dollars from the paycheck of a hardworking employee or a major gift from a corporation, every donation makes a difference," Hallinan said. "It takes all of us working together to make our community a better place for all who live and work in Palm Beach County."

Last year, under the chairmanship of Elizabeth Marshman, the Business and Professional Campaign raised $361,811 from approximately 1,400 employees and 72 businesses.

The 2022-2023 Business and Professional Committee includes the following members:
