PALM BEACH, FL – James Borynack and Adolfo Zaralegui hosted a Holiday Cocktail Reception on Saturday, November 29 at Findlay Galleries to benefit the Town of Palm Beach United Way's 32nd Annual Toy Drive. More than 125 guests attended the party, helping the United Way collect hundreds of toys to benefit children and families in need in Palm Beach County.

"We are deeply grateful to everyone who joined us and arrived with their arms full of gifts," said Findlay Galleries Owner James Borynack. "Each toy represents a moment of joy for a child who might otherwise go without this season, and together we're reminding them that their community sees them, cares about them, and wants their holidays to feel special. That, to me, is the true spirit of this time of year—and it's an honor to play even a small part in making that happen."

The Toy Drive began on November 9 and ends on December 7. Toys will be distributed to Town of Palm Beach United Way nonprofit partner agencies, including Adopt-A-Family, Catholic Charities, Farmworker Coordinating Council, FoundCare, and Literacy Coalition.

"We are enormously grateful to Findlay Galleries, to James and Adolfo, and to every guest who chose to support our Toy Drive," said Board Chairman Richard Rothschild. "This event reflects beautifully on what our community can do when we come together with generosity and compassion—ensuring that children who are facing hardship still experience the joy, dignity, and wonder of the holidays. Their kindness is helping us deliver not just toys, but hope, to families who need it most."
